

Into Reading – 3rd Grade

Module / Week /

Spelling Skill: Below is the spelling skill that we will be studying this week.

Words with open and closed syllables

Words with 3-consonant blends

This week's text:

Marisol McDonald
Doesn't Match

Vocabulary Words

clash	Colors or patterns that clash look strange or ugly together
winking	You are winking when you quickly blink one eye at someone because you share a joke or secret.
suggest	If you suggest something, you give ideas or plans for someone to think about.
scrunches	If something scrunches up, it is squeezed or crushed into a different shape.
mushy	Something that is mushy is soft and squishy.
usual	The usual way to do something is the way that is done most often.
bilingual	People who are bilingual can speak two languages.
mismatched	Things that are mismatched do not fit or belong together.